

IT'S GOOD TO MEET YOU

TO MIKE AND NATALYA

By Steve Wessels @ Hispoetry.com

© 12-25-04 - From Hebrews 11:6

Have you ever met a friend from years ago,
an old flame,
a decade or two removed?

Remember talks of names revered, of dreams or parents memories cheered, hopes of meeting heroes true,

Suppose the Pres of these U.S. stopped to chat awhile or Phil or Oprah called to ask what is your point of view?

Have you ever prayed real hard and waited years in vain for God to reveal Himself to ease the bloody strain?

We've all heard the tales of old that challenged Him to say Just what He thinks or wants to plainly show His Way?

I met someone the other day Natalya is her name, and realized all over again the power in His name.

Two decades passed after the time Mike's Ex had screamed "Divorce!" I helped him fight throughout those years to fight her evil force.

At times I'd stop and pray a bit for God to intervene, to shower Mike with His true love and blessings so supreme with some special, lovely girl who'd drop his jaw a bit and meet his kiss with passion true fulfilling God's true wit.

Then he called a few months back he said he'd met someone from Belarus, from overseas from chance encounter done.

Times did pass and roses bloomed before the day arrived when Michael vowed before the Lord to trust his lovely bride.

They stopped by here the other day to rest and chat a spell, I got to say with all my heart *“It’s good to meet you well!”

I’ve prayed for you in decades past before you ever knew where God had planned your path to go His measures so sure.

You’ve left your home and all you know to chance a life with Mike Like Ruth of old you’ve chosen well his love and life will spike.

It’s good to meet you, Natalya sweet you’ll always be welcome here, we’ll shower you with prayers so strong and fellowship secure.