

SUCH HARMONY

By Steve Wessels

Dedicated to my Lord, who gave me Carol

A dear friend asked the other day, but I couldn't find the words to say how married life is the second time 'round, I thought for a moment, stared at the ground, then all I could show was a mile-wide grin which eloquently told of my chagrin for I couldn't find the words to describe the Harmony I'd found with my new bride:

magnificent peace and power within,
of God-centered love, so free from sin, marvelous harmony of body and soul, our spirits within our Lord's control.

And so my friend just shook her head, and smiled at harmony silently said in volumes of radiant, peaceful smiles, I found with Carol such harmony wild.

So to my Lord I give all praise and pray with Carol, our spirits we raise to worship our Maker, as He deserves, such Harmony He's given without reserve.

This poem's to help all others know that for such love to freely grow, without God's help, it's hard to win, since love on earth is cursed by sin.
